About the Writer: Allen Rigg is the Senior Pastor at Calvary Chapel of Austin, which he and his wife Andrea planted in 1991 after coming to Texas from California. Starting with eight adults and children, Calvary Austin has now grown to about 1,000 members. In California, Allen served as a worship leader at several Calvary Chapels and has always maintained his love for worship music.

About the Song: Concerned about what he felt was a lack of songs relating to communion, Allen penned this song with the hopes that it would touch hearts and draw people close to the Lord while they took His body and blood in communion.
