About the Writer: David Reynolds is the Worship Pastor at Calvary Chapel of Austin and has led worship there since 1997. He and his wife, Heather, played together in different Christian rock bands before sensing God's calling on their lives to lead worship. David also coordinates the Calvary Chapel Mid-South Worship Conference, a regional event hosted by Calvary Austin.

About the Song: This song was written in 1999 after a time of reading through the book of Isaiah and coming across the passage that is quoted again in the book of Romans. As he meditated on the phrase "every knee shall bow and every tongue confess", David visualized the idea of worshipping at Jesus' feet. He believes this song is both a call to worship and shout of warning to those who have not yet received Jesus as their Lord and Savior. Musically, the arrangement changed quite a bit from its original inception, in order to reflect the urgency of bowing before Him now, and not waiting until it's too late.
